Donor: Harrison Thee

Harrison Thee is a young artist aspiring to capture the sense of adventure life brings. Diverse cultures provide much of the subject matter for Thee's art. Each piece provides a glimpse into the lives of people, objects, and places preserved in his work. As an artist, Harrison works out of his studio in Indianapolis. He is actively involved in the local arts community, and exhibits work on a regular basis.

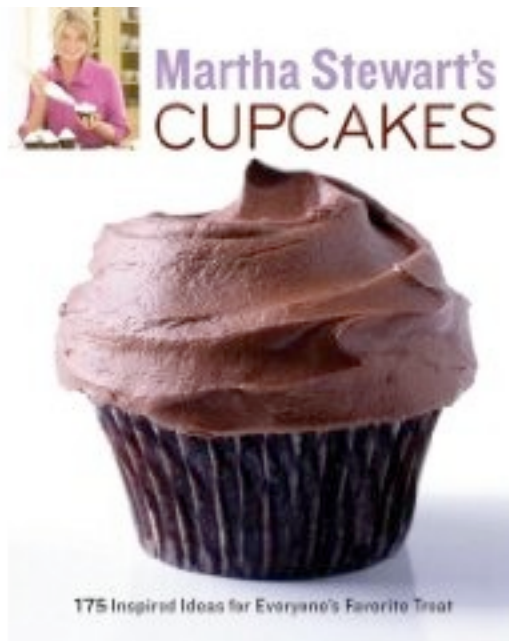

With such broad perspectives, Harrison Thee Photography is able to bring a creative touch to preserving your life event through photography. Visit the Portfolio link for a preview of Thee's work. Portrait, personal and event photography can be customized to suit your needs.
